
Multimodal Ocular Imaging - In Neurodegenerative Disorders

Volunteer today to help UM researchers figure out if dementia can be diagnosed using eye exams.

You may qualify if you:

- Are at least 45 yrs old
- Have been diagnosed with Alzheimer's Dementia or Frontotemporal Dementia
- Have no retinal or corneal eye disease
- Have no contraindications to MRI or ionizing radiation

Qualified volunteers will receive compensation for their time and visit.

If interested, please contact Omar Moinuddin at (847) 217-5387

 University of Michigan
Departments of Ophthalmology & Neurology